ABSTRACT

This project is about online shopping named as Shopsy. Now-a-days due to Corona maximum people are not willing to perform outside shopping so many people are intended to perform online shopping so many online shopping websites get so much of craze these days but this website shows the actual product with actual cost.

Not believe us just compare with all other websites. This website mainly consists of home page which displays all the products with trending in market as top and remaining at bottom by clicking the product it will redirected to another page which displays merely items of the selected one i.e, if the clothes are selected it shows different models and this website provides clothes for men and women and kids as well as electronic gadgets such as mobiles and televisions.

In this website home page already discussed and shop page for selecting special items into cart and then payment section to be done and it has catalogue section that will be provide info about all types of products this website will be provided with contact us page also for any disturbances about us will show our reality.
